Q1: What is the central theme of "Mending Wall"?

Answer:

The central theme of "Mending Wall" revolves around the idea of boundaries—both physical and metaphorical—and the human tendency to uphold traditions and boundaries even when they may no longer serve a purpose. The poem explores the contrast between the speaker's questioning attitude toward the wall's necessity and the neighbor's unwavering belief in maintaining it. It raises questions about tradition, privacy, and the nature of human relationships.

Q2: Why does the speaker question the need for the wall?

Answer:

The speaker questions the need for the wall because he perceives it as an unnecessary barrier that separates neighbors who share a good relationship. Q4: How does the poem reflect the conflict between tradition and change?

Answer:

The poem portrays a tension between adhering to longstanding customs (symbolized by the wall and the phrase "Good fences make good neighbors") and the speaker's inclination to question and challenge these traditions.
