Understanding the Concept of Decree and Declare

What Does It Mean to Decree and Declare?

At its core, to decree means to issue an authoritative command or proclamation, often rooted in divine authority or spiritual belief. To declare, on the other hand, involves publicly affirming or announcing a truth or promise. When combined, 'decree and declare' signifies a deliberate act of speaking forth God's promises, divine truths, or positive affirmations with faith and authority.

Cindy Trimm emphasizes that these acts are not merely positive thinking or wishful words; rather, they are spiritual declarations backed by faith, grounded in Scripture, and empowered by divine authority. When believers decree and declare, they are essentially aligning their words with God's Word, believing that their spoken declarations can influence their circumstances, unlock divine favor, and bring about transformation.

The Biblical Foundation of Decrees and Declarations

Cindy Trimm often references biblical passages to validate the power of decrees and declarations:

- Job 22:28: 'You shall also decide and decree a thing, and it shall be established for you.'
- Isaiah 55:11: 'So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty...'
- Mark 11:23: 'Truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.?

These scriptures underscore the spiritual authority believers have, emphasizing that words have power when spoken in faith aligned with God's Word.
